

SUMMER FUN ON THE HEIGHTS

With school being out for many children, and the warm sunny days, there's no better time to explore what the Heights has to offer. With businesses ranging from antique stores to bakeries, and every amenity you can think of, there is no shortage of diversity on the Heights. With that being said, here's a top ten list of things to do in the area this summer.

- Take a stroll on the Trans-Canada Trail, whether by bike or foot. With a large range of biodiversity to discover, there's something for everyone.
- Have a picnic at Confederation Park while watching the wildlife and passersby. Or, take Fido for a stroll and treat him to some goodies from Big Dog Little Dog Bakery. There's also a miniature train operated by Burnaby Central Railway that costs $2.50 per ride.
- Want a relaxing day with the comfort of air conditioning? Head over to the Dolphin Theatre for a range of movie selections and an abundance of good popcorn.
- Interested in doing something indoors, but more stimulating than watching a movie? Watch your children's imaginations thrive as they try their hand at art, whether at 4Cats Arts Studio, Pinocchio Art School or Artspace Children's Arts Centre.
- In the mood for some fancy, hand-crafted floral arrangements? Head over to Plush Floral Studio or Adele-Rae Florist for some amazing, conversation-starting pieces.
- Need to keep the kids busy, or simply looking for a book? Take a look at Brown's Books and Companion Book who both offer some very interesting reads. Or if you're looking for a comfortable place to simply browse through a large selection of books, head over to the McGill Library and let the kids loose in the kids section.
- Want the experience of people-watching on Hastings Street with a great drink in hand? Drop by one of our many café's or tea shops to satisfy your craving.
- Need some new threads with personalized attention? Visit Chickadee Boutique for the latest and greatest fashions.
- Fancy taking a relaxing dip? Head over to the Eileen Dailly Pool for some family fun!
- Long hair getting annoying to constantly maintain? Head over to one of our many hair salons for a thorough head massage and haircut, and then treat yourself to a relaxing manicure.

These are just a few things to do in the Heights this summer. Don't forget to mark your calendar for Aug. 26, as Chevron's Movie Night at Confederation Park occurs just after dusk. Enjoy the summer!
